Veterans Day with Trinity Hospice

St. Mary's Woods celebrated Veterans Day by honoring all our residents who served. They received a pin and certificate for their service. Patriotism was in the air as we played and sang along to all our favorite fight songs!

Watercolor Class with Curtis

This past December our Life Enrichment Coordinator Curtis taught a watercolor series to our residents using a variety of mediums including watercolor pencils. Residents painted serene winter scenes including cardinals.

FUN FACT

The Northern Cardinal has been the official state bird of Virginia since January 25th, 1950.

For the Win!

The competitive spirit was on display during our tailgate party and chili cook-off event! We celebrated by watching the big game, tasting chili recipes, and fellowship with residents and guests.
