Oh the Drama!

St. Mary's Woods' new drama club—The Woodsy Players—recently hosted their first live performance. Borrowed Laundry was written by Ted Boretti and produced by Director of Dining Services Erin Kelly. This quirky comedy is set at a local dry cleaner where the married owners of the business “borrow” laundry from the townsfolk to wear to an award ceremony... and hilarity ensues!

Judy, Peter and Marcia act out a hilarious scene from their debut performance of Borrowed Laundry.

Backstage laughs with John, Director of Dining Services Erin Kelly, and Marilyn.

Cast and Crew:
(from left) John Hendricks,
Judy Seversen, Peter Kuester, Marcia
Gillespie, Marilyn Packard, and Willo Newton.

Autumn Affairs

Crunchy leaves, hot drinks, comfort foods, and sweater weather... it's safe to say that these seasonal favorites make autumn our most beloved season. We take advantage of every opportunity to carve out some fun. Our annual Flannel Fest was a hit in October – filled with playful plaids and flavors to savor. In November, we scored big with our outdoor Tailgate Party, featuring scratch-made chili and cornbread. And luckily, the weather was excellent for both!
